WHAT SHE MAKES

IS KEEPING HER IN POVERTY

Big clothing brands
pay women like Anju as little as 37 cents per hour.

OXFAM
Australia

Like the latest styles?
We do too.

But the women who
make these clothes
are living in poverty
because big brands
don't pay them
enough to live on.

Demand a living wage for the women
who make our clothes.
